FORWARD

we, the annual staff of modesto union academy, publish the el capitan as a record of our work, our play, our accomplishments, and our ideals. we are proud of our school and our standards, and we hope that the friends we've made and the knowledge we've gained will always remain with us.

DEDICATION

a bible teacher on a christian campus has a tremendous responsibility. to the youth who sit in his classes and seek his counsel he must be a constant exponent of true consecration. such a man was elder winston dennis. it is to this real friend and beloved teacher that we dedicate our yearbook of 1960. may the lord continue to bless him in all that he does.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

teaching true education is the objective of all seventh-day adventist schools. this is the "harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual power's. it prepares the student for the joy of service in this world, and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come." it has been and will continue to be the attempt of the faculty to put forth such a program. this cannot be done alone, it can come only by god's guidance through prayer and the combined efforts of parents and students. modesto union academy has experienced the above co-operative efforts through the years. only in the heavenly kingdom will we be able to understand fully and appreciate the value of this true education.

the theme of the el capitan is, "ever climbing to obtain the high standards of physical, mental, and spiritual activity."

we must ever work for this goal as does the true mountaineer.

thus we have pictured the christian student as a mountaineer climbing ever upward to meet these high standards with his tools, the bible and his faith in God.

in appreciation

as editor of the 1961 el capitan, i wish to express my deep gratitude and thanks to those who have worked so hard in the preparation of this annual.

to mr. de leon, our sponsor, who has given much time in the preparing of the pictures . . .

to the staff who has co-operated in many ways by fulfilling their duties . . .

to mrs. eagan, our photographer who has given us much time and patience . . .

and to you, the subscribers, for your co-operation and interest in our school and the annual . . .

to all of you i would like to say, "thank-you!"

sincerely,

SENIORS

muu muus and lava lavas ... punch ... yachting ... rowing on pinecrest lake ... "south of cebu" ... robes ... caps and tassels ... "pomp and circumstance" ... oh, the memories that will flood the minds of the seniors in the years to come!

our junior year holds many memories also: choosing our colors — beige and brown — for our class sweaters; our motto, "each for another," and our aim, "all for god"; our flower — the yellow carnation; our "caveman" outing; and our lovely banquet.

yes, the years will swirl together and we shall frequently recall our academy days and the people we knew.

john alspaugh — our class president, a stalwart gentleman and a real scholar.

darline bell — food coordinator for the junior-senior picnic.

joene bowman — quietly courteous, and a very efficient worker sharon bullard — our class organist, slender, dark-haired, and determined.

larry bunning — the tall boy with his mind on jeeps, ranches, and the quiet life.

gerri lee burge — short and fiery, a real menace on the ball field.

charlotte cone — another shortie, with a friendly smile and composed manner.

aaron fielder — competent, artistic, and always ready to help.

arthur francis — impressive in size, with a passion for taking the opposite point of view.

claudia green — a peppery blonde whose lack of stature doesn't stop her from doing a multitude of things well.

lillian hamilton — tall and slender, another pool of calmness in our turbulent class.

marti hodge — vivacious, with an outstanding gift of humor, and an unforgettable laugh.

lorry hoewing — the financial wizard of the class, with blushing cheeks and a winning smile.

dennis lake — the lad with a deep-roaring laugh; whose hardworking ways team up with a love of mischief.

john malone — the deep silent type, with a gift for making machines work — be they jeeps or player pianos.

donna mcclurken — red-haired, tempestuous, and artistic, with a way of being sweetly outspoken.

darlene morgan — dark-haired, blue-eyed, a lass with a ready smile and friendly ways bernard mundall — our quiet lad from oakdale who cannot manage to make an enemy.

lynden proctor — the senior with the smile, whose quips will go down in history.

pauline rice — dark-eyed and serious, but really fun-loving when in her own circle.

stanley rouhe — our aristocrat and world traveller, a master at the loaded remark and the "don't-hold-it-against-me" smile.

carolyn salas — diminutive and dainty, with musical gifts anyone could envy.

winona scott — our lover of literature, with a sharp mind and the determination to succeed.

ronald squier — well-liked master of the smooth statement and well-turned compliment.

fred waltman — our automotive genius, whose quiet friendliness make him a favorite.

— these are the friends who have been together a long time, and their memories of each other and their school life will be cherished as long as they live. good luck and god's guidance to all.

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

there once lived in the grassy valley, known as mua valley, the fierce mua indians. here in the valley they could provide there tribe with game from the "forest fair."

they were led by their mighty chief, leslie, and his squaw, lorry.

but the pioneers were moving westward, led by their brave leader, dennis lake, and the brave pioneer woman, marti hodge (not shown).

INDIANS VS. PIONEERS

the brave pioneers made their fort on the other side of the "forest fair." but as westerns go, the indians and the pioneers met and clashed over hunting grounds.

but the calvary to the rescue, in the nick of time, with "ye olde treaty."

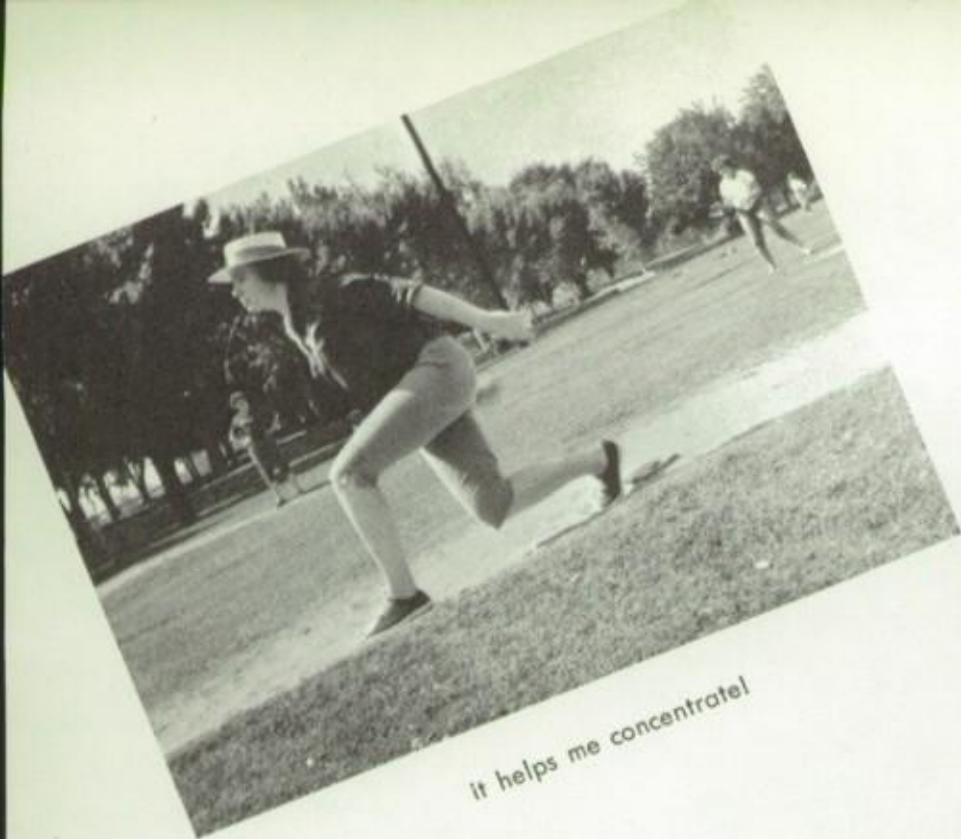

terms set by the treaty were carried out between mighty leslie and brave dennis in the fashion of a waterfight.

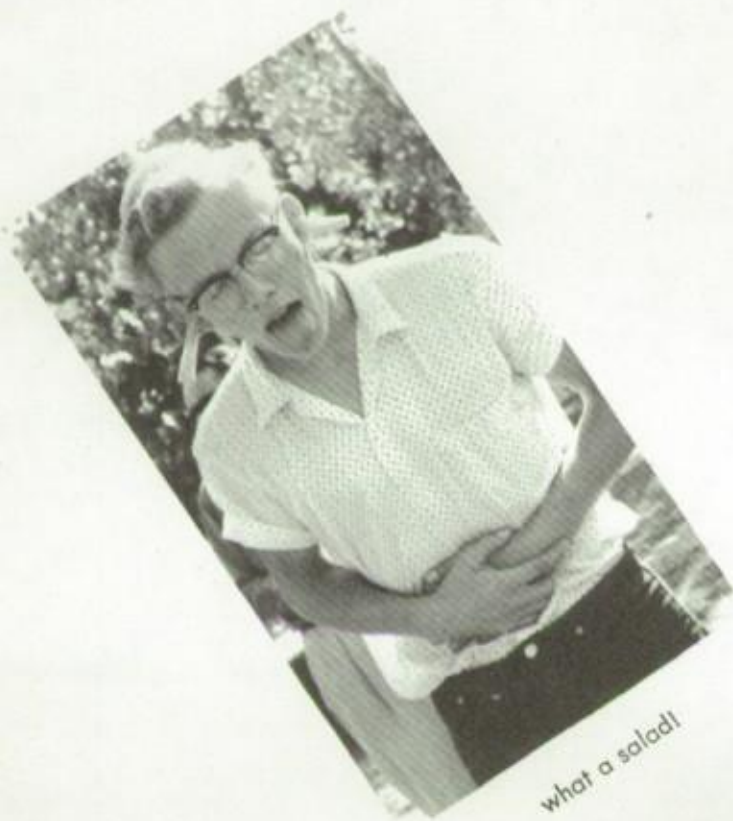

it helps me concentratel

"attention, men!"

what a salad!

this can prove quite tiring.?.
